Helbert A. Canales-Rojas is an associate attorney at Pena Garcia & Diz, PLLC, where he focuses his practice on commercial litigation, general liability litigation, and products liability litigation matters.

While Mr. Canales-Rojas focuses his practice primarily on litigation matters, he also provides support to the corporate and real estate practice groups. Mr. Canales-Rojas draws on his broad litigation and transactional experience to assist clients in proactively avoiding lawsuits by drafting and reviewing contracts, negotiating in the early stages of a dispute before proceeding to court, ensuring compliance with industry regulations, and implementing other preventative and cost-saving measures.

Professional Background

Prior to joining the Firm, Mr. Canales-Rojas was an associate attorney in the litigation practice group of a national law firm where he focused on a variety of complex litigation matters including, commercial litigation, construction litigation, and real estate litigation matters in state and federal court. Additionally, Mr. Canales-Rojas previously worked as a law clerk for a boutique business transactions and litigation law firm and a judicial intern for Senior Judge James Lawrence King of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida. Mr. Canales-Rojas graduated from the Florida International University College of Law here he was a Dean's Scholarship recipient and a research assistant to Senior Judge Phyllis Kotey.
